

DG HOME Study – Private Flights

The Study has two main objectives:

- to provide a comprehensive picture of the private civil aviation sector, including its exploitation for criminal activities and the existing legal obligations applying to it;
- to identify and assess the feasibility of potential policy and technical options to address current legislative and operational gaps.

GA.TeB involvement

- A survey of a range of different authorities across Member States, including civil aviation authorities (or directorates general of civil aviation)
- GA.TeB contact details shared with the Steer Davies & Gleave Limited (Steer) consortium
